THAW JURY UP 10 DATE No. 1 .- DEMING B. SMITH, retired manufacturer of umbrellas; lives at lever in a capital case. Is fifty years old and married.

No. 2 .- GEORGE PFAFF, hardware, No. 122 Centre street. 'Is married, about forty years old, and has served in criminal cases before.

No. 3. - GEORGE H. FECKE, manager, of No. 601 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street. Is about forty-five years old, married, has served on juries before, but never in a capital case.

No. 4.—ARTHUR S, CAMPBELL, superintendent, lives at No. 823 West End avenue, and is married. Is about forty-five years old and has been No. 5 .- HENRY C. HARNEY, manager, lives at Brook avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-second street. Is sixty years old and married. Has served in criminal casesb efore; also on a capital case where the defendant was ac No. 6 .- HAROLD R. FAIRE, printer, of No. 21 Manhattan avenue. Is a single man, about thirty years old and never served on a jury before in a

No. 7 .- MALCOLM F. FRASER, clothing salesman; lives at No. 142 West One Handred and Twenty-eighth street. Is married and has served on criminal cases as a juror before. He is about thirty-five years old.

This annues equally to the Countess of Beale has been hi Augusta, Yarmonth. The reason why she has not a visit to the children of his an ultimatum that he would withdraw an emphatic denial. He said: from the case unless May McKenzle was kept out of the court-room is abso-

wife had contemplated a divorce in case | man." Thaw is acquitted is just as false. Thaw Beale, who was former United States together to-day than before the tragedy, has nad a stormy career himself. such a character has come to him."

for the architect. He was with Thaw he ped him. on the night of the tragedy. In fact, laughters appropriate fully (Miss. Me. Were at a table diving when White er Renzie's devilibit to Halry Thaw a wire, tered Everyn Thaw is said to na and they have never had the slightest handed her husband a note, telling before to the intimicry of the pair. White s arrival.

that she was overwrought by the first of former Secretary Biaine. He has not day's proceedings and had to stay at been in New York to appear in public cident of the note. McCaleb did make "No such incident occurred."

is a Truthful Man.

When Reals was told this he said "I fancy that McCaleb tells the truth and his wife are more inseparably bound! Minister to Persia and later to Greece, Lastly, it isn't true that Thaw has re- After being divorced by the daughter ceived threatening letters. None of of Secretary Blaine, he went back to his old home in San Francisco, where he fell in love with the beautiful Marie It is believed that the retirement of Marriott, of the Weekly News Letter, a se eminent lawyer would weaken the society sheet, wrote something to which Thaw case as much as the presence of Miss Ofe objected. Truxton Beale was appealed to. He was saked to right Beale's knowledge of Thaw and of the wrong and he did. He did it with a White dates back to the time when sun, Thomas H. Williams, jr., Presi-Thaw acquired the all-consuming hatred dent of the California Jockey Club, on the night of the tragedy. In fact, he had only quitted Thaw and his wife at Martin's when the couple went over to the roof garden, where Thaw followed White and killed him.

Taken to Hospital.

"I know the whole story." Beale said to a reporter for The Evening World. At the trial both were acquitted, and will am anly waiting for the proper time to tell it. It would be anjust to my friend Thaw to tell it now."

There has been much secrecy about the properties and fishing and in New York.

O'Mara Coming On with Witnesses from Pittsburg evidence in his case, will leave for New Nesbitt Thaw, are taken to indicate York with a number of witnesses early that Mr. O'Mara was either after documents in possession of the Holman C'Mara is said to have been the first family, or information from one of man sent for by Thaw when he found them. It is reported here that, follow-himself in the Tombs and there has ing the trial, the Thaws will not return been quite a little speculation here as immediately to Pittsburg because of the propriety attained for the family to the ntaure of the evidence he will the notoriety attained for the family name through the killing of Architect White by Harry Thaw, but may go to Several trips that were made by the England for a while.

11 YEARS IN ASYLUM | "VOLUNTEERS" GET NOW DECLARED SANE

Be Tried on Old Charge - Says It's Too Easy to

of Burglary.

declared incame in a commission. Volunteers but were holding out," as decayied trans time it is said, no well as robbing aims boxes in saloons suffered two sunstrokes and since then, and shops. charged, be had not grited ex | Both young men refused their ad-

NEW ORLEANS ENTRIES. FAIR GROUNDS, NEW ORLEANS, La, Jan. 3. The entries for Monday s

PHES CORED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS. case of Riching, Rilind, Dieeding or Protenting

Matteawan Prisoner Will Now Youth Accused by Captain

Become Collector.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 26.—A Rex Alexander, twenty-four, were head for the Supreme Court, before Jus. for examination in the Adams Streat in Morschauser, helfe the day, decided in thirty minutes that Charles L. Was charge of vagrancy, on complaint of sorbach, an inmate of the Matteawan Capt. Herman Daily, of No. 117 West State Asylum for the Criminal Insane. Capt. Herman Daily, of No. 117 West was sone and computent to care for Sixty second street, Mannattan, who part of his face and a slouch hat pulse. The firemen rescued sixty of the work were charged and identification. The firemen rescued sixty of the work were charged and identification asys there was a third. The man will be difficult. The firemen rescued sixty of the work were charged and identification. he limit the verdict Wassers Kels his title from the Volunteers of back, who was present in court, murmured "Thank God"

America. Capt. Daily said the young mured "Thank God"

Wasserback, on March 6, 1895, was in dicted for burg ary in Albany, and later
Volunteers, but were "holding out," as

Wells like Irom ine younteers of not remember ever hearing his voice men, who are well dressed and edubefore."

Seven Wasserback, on March 6, 1895, was in cated, were acting as collectors for the Volunteers, but were "holding out," as dressed and Cawle, a frail youth, ex man, who was bent on paying off a gher and twenty reserves, together wit claimed excitedly: "You may lock me in score. He gained an entrance to the half a dozen Central Office detective.

reveals something of interest to the part of the house was disturbed. The Westervell avenue to Richmond Terrace average citizen who wonders why it is man must have made his way straight thence across the tracks of the Statement when it is and women collectors with the boxes

ESCAPED THE EARTHQUAKE.

Mrs. Gertrude Bergen, Dr. Belzel and

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Mrs. George L. Carnegie, Sister of Thaw, Sketched by Kimball BAR ESCAPE IN

DOCTOR VICTIM OF STRANGE SHOOTING: HACK DRIVER HELD.

urgeons at the Smith Infirmary think there is little hope of his ever recov-ering. One of the bullets pierced him in the abdomen and the other in the left side, not far from the heart. The tim's death.

Wife, Too, Changes Her Story. Mrs. Townsend at 3rst concurred in the statement made by her husband that the shooting had been done by a burglar, but on learning that Dr. Townwork of an enemy she admitted that White Plains, N. Y., Jan. 26. A Rex Alexander, twenty-four, were held then I think there was only one more their electric to recent the windows. The down over the upper part of it. I do carried down ladders as]

All of the circumstances about the injured.

calls that he caught bold of her loss > says Dr. Townsend begged him in an would get up and go with him. first to enter the house, informed the Janeway. He is a Yole man and we made his escare from the house after the shooting. The hoy thinks the man bore a sironz resemblance to one who lives not far away, on the road toward.

>
> According to Crabtree Tennic and the leading here is sironz resemblance to one who lives not far away, on the road toward.

According to Crabtree. Dr. Townsend had treated the wife of this man for some time. He said that he had no knowledge of any enmity existing between him and Dr. Townsend.

Inspector. Schmittberger, Capt. Galla
WARNDSONS SIN J., Jan. 26

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Jan. 26

Wigt to her, "But they have taken from the baby I loved. There is nothing and the baby I loved. There is nothing and the baby I loved. There is nothing and the baby I loved. There is nothing as the barred door the persons inside got she drank a tumblerful of the acid. She was dead when the ambulance surgeon arrived.

You are slappy, said Jose do a place on the second floor of Nome the baby I loved. There is nothing as the baby I loved. There is n surgeons think that either wound would be sufficient to cause the vic- Four Hundred Men and Women in Panic When Flames Suddenly Burst Out at Big New Hampshire Plant.

15 BURNED TO DEATH WHILE WORKERS FLED FROM FLAMING MILI

heir bedside.

The was aroused by the sound of which was five stories high, when Those on the lower floor general pieces in the room." and Mrs. Those on the lower floor general voices in the room," said Mrs. Town- flames suddenly burst out on the lower send. "and saw a man standing closs floor, preventing the recare of those to the bed. He was pointing a revolver at my husband and I called out Several jumped from the windows. "'Don't shoot, you coward, can't you while others made their escape by sliding down energency ropes."

Townsend is unarmed?" At that a dungeon, but I will stay there forever house through a window in the dining took up the trail of the mysterious man rather than have my parents know what room, where there was in plain sight at the house of Dr. Townsend, Aided by has happened to me.

Lewis made a statement that, if true, But not a single article in the lower from the cast side of the house through their advice or consent, although under the temployees the terms of the lease they have n not borne out by the facts. She dended by the facts she dended positively that she had any knowledge of the mysterious man's identity but was able to give a fairly good description of him as he appeared at their bedside.

DOVER, N. H., Jan. 26.—Pifteen could make any effort to extinguish it for the flames spread to the spinning room and swept through the big mill. There were no free-escapes in the place, and that structure early to-day.

Four hundred employees of the firm will rish for the employees made a first version of the traged was policy of the torms of the tease they have no could make any effort to extinguish it opinion to extinguish it for the spinning room and swept through the spinning room the flames appeared to the spinning room and swept through the big mill. There were no free-escapes in the place, and that structure early to-day.

Four hundred employees of the firm will rish for the exits. her first version of the tragedy was DOVER, N. H., Jan. 28.—Pifteen could make any effort to extinguish it not borne out by tile facts. She de workers in Mill No. I of the Counced the flames spread to the spinning room

AN ADOPTED BAGY

Mrs. Rosensweig Has None of Her Own, and When It was Taken She Drank Acid.

which the suspect lives is being carefolly watched.—

Or William C. Walser, a brother in law of Dr. Townsend, is firm in the conviction that the shoeting was done by some man who had a gradge, real and the polye that the pysician. He can be polye that the fact that Dr Townsend was a handsome and popular as had probably been sufficient to a use the jesions hatred of some one be provided in the social affairs of Siass

In Townsend is a relative of Dr Janeway, He is a Yale man and we known in the social affairs of Siass

In Townsend County Country

Cond. Driving Cibb and Automobile Cibb. He is about forty years old and Cibb. Richmend Country Country

GRANDSON'S SHOT KILLED.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Jan. 25.

William Hager, of Mendham, who was shot by his grandson, James Dugan, on Jan. Il iask, died to day a All

Before Mrs. Krupper could interfer;

Before Mrs. Krupper could interfer;

Before Mrs. Krupper could interfer;

Handled, Anti-Policy Society, has made four raths and three arrests in that part of town in the sate week and reports that there are stress in that part of town in the sat week and reports that there are stress in that part of town
in the sat week and reports that there are stress in that part of town
in the sat week and reports that there are stress in that part of town
in the sat week and reports that there are stress in that part of town
in the sat week and reports that there are stress in that part of town
in the sat week and reports that there are stress in that part of town in the sat week and reports that there are described committo adopt, Mrs. Susis Rosensystem or policy games in Little Italy.

He arruinged Thomas Sandell, of No.
23 East One-Hundred and Tenth street, in the art use of the street in the policy games in Little Italy.

Bartled Thomas C. Walls the provide and there are streets on the second thoor to easie the policy games in Little 1au, system or policy gam

BLAZING HALLS TENEMENT FIRE

Scores of Families in Peril Young Man Says Waiter and Driven to Escapes for Safety.

When a blaze flashed in the lower hallway of the five-story tenement Nos. to-day, a score of families were asleep to the room above. A. J. McGiveney, of No. 507 West Fifty second street, an were dashing to the scene McGiveney aroused the sleeping tenants on the lower floods by pelting the window glass with chunks of ice. These tenants in urn awoke their fellow inmates, but cause of the fire in the hallway. Mrs. Catherine Kelly, the housekeeper, sleeping on the second floor, was the first of the tenants to be awakened by McGiveney's ke bombardment. She awoke her ion and a boarder, and friend when he heard Mrs. Kelly's cries, climbed out upon the cornice near the window of his room, and reached the fire-escape. He began mushing win-dow, and yelling to those within to flee. He went from floor to floor in this manner, helping Mrs. Kelly in his descent, then flinging down the street ladder, that those huddled on the lower ladder, that those huddled on the lower escapes might reach the street.

He went aloft regain and helped James Hill's wife and three children out upon the fire escape.

Hook and Ladder Company No. 4, with Lieut, Simpson in command, and Lieut, Gaw, of Engine Company No. 54, completed the work of rescue, raising two ladders and entering every room of the burning building until all were safe. James Kearney! his wife, niece and ten children, on the top floor, were helped out. James McGleese, wife and three children, Mary McTague and Mary Curran and other tenants were in peril when the fire laddies took charge of them. Both Miss Curran promptly fainted.

Battalaon Chief Devanney, of Engine No. 23, was on the fourth floor when he heard a faint cry coming from the rear, "Go in there," commanded the Chief to Fireman McMahon, "and get that person out." McMahon crawled on his stomach and felt over the bed and elsewhere. When he emerged, almost choked from the smoke, he was carrying a cat.

The fire gutted the rear of three choked from the characteristic against a cat.

The fire gutted the rear of three apartments. The tenants, driven into the street without clothing, were taken care of by neighbors, while "The" Mc-Manus provided clothing and a shelter for a store in the rooms of his club, house, No. 728 Ninth avenue.

OPERA-HOUSE OWNERS INSIST THAT SALOME SHALL BE SHELVED.

ompany that owns the building; Adrian selln tr George F. Baker, George W. Lanier and George Perbody Wetmore. many times over, object to the character of "Salome." Besides, they re but the fact that it was produced without wild rush for the exits.

Those on the lower floor generally managed to get cut through the doors are the windows, but toose on the fourth and fifth floor rushed to the south in large numbers, and finding that smoke and flames cut off their exit down the stairways, many leaped from the windows.

Both of the windows.

Both of the project the after one of the courts to decide whether the leases may the project the project the project of the bound of the fourts to decide whether the leases which in the opinion of the rail owners of the bound of the project there is the power of the project the project of the project there is the power of the project there is the power of the bound of the rail owners of the bound of the rail owners of the bound of the rail owners.

placed there for emergency, and, attaching those to the window frames, slid down rapidity, burning the skin or their hands in so doing.

The mill was considered one of the best of the extensive plant of the Cocheon Manufacturing Company, which has many structures on both sides of the Cocheon River. The No. 1 mill fronted on Washington street, with the river in the rear. A bridge connected it with the print works of the company agross time way.

The building was destroyed with a loss of $500,000.

The building was destroyed with a loss of $500,000.

The building was destroyed with a loss of $500,000.

AN ADOPTED BASY

AN ADOPTED BASY

Which in the opinion of the real owners of the house are highly injurious to its presentative for two. Herr. Conried's representatives declined to discuss the sudden crisis. They said Herr. Conried's company had recently renewed its lease on the building for a term of years. Charles Henry Meltzer, personal representative for the Director, said:

"Harr Conried is amply capable to handle the present situation. He is limited in present situation. He is limited in present situation. He is limited in present situation of about in own of $500,000.

The building was destroyed with a loss of $500,000.

The building was destroyed with a loss of the company would be out of pocket a large impression of a bout in own of a dolling, the contract with the composer, Richard Strauss, calls for a payment to him of $500 for each of four performances.

POLICY REVIVING ON HARLEM EAST SIDE.

Policy appears to be gaining a foot-hour on the east side of Harlem. Will-lam C. Hamilton, a detective of the Anti-Policy Society, has made four raids

OELRICHS HAD RIGHT TO HIT SAYS COURT

He Struck Had Called Him Vile Name.

young Ocirichs was arrested in his office, in the Flatiron Busiding, chargud with having kicked George A. Sloane, head waiter of the Hotel Buckingham, waite in the hotel billiard-room, two days before. Stoane has not been able to appear in court until to-day, being comfined to a cot in Flower Hospital.
Sloane testified that on Jan. 12 he was attracted to the billiard-room by load swearing and found Ocirichs making a disturbance there. The head-waiter said that when he told Ocirichs fo be quite to be a considered that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the different parts
of the said little that on the business of the different parts of the said little that on the business of the said said little that on the business of the said said little that on the business of the said said little that on the business of the said said said said said little that on way home from work saw the flare and fice; in the Flatiron Bushding, charged or leave, he was called a vile name, by challet Book Coupén to Denfues Spe-Oulriche, who punched him, hit him law Beston. with an umbrella and kicked him in he abdomen, rendering him unconcious. Five other waiters corroborated

> Franklin Bartlett, denied this charge, He said he had been to a matines wit his friend and only witness, George R. Preston, of Tuxedo Park, "member of the famous Preston family of Kentucky sub.2 While in the barroom, Oelrichs said, he wanted to show Mr. Prestor just gone to the billiard-room when Sloane came up and called Oelricha censed him that he pursued Sloane around the table, and that while run around the table, and that while running Sloane may have bumped himself.
>
> Mr. Preston testified to the same effect, although he was a little tangled.
>
> Col. Bartlett then introduced letters from Sloane's counsel. Elbert Hamlin, urging Oelrich or his counsel to settle if they didn't want to fight a civil suit.
>
> Col. Bartlett said this looked like compounding a felony to him. Mr. Hamlin objected and was sustained.
>
> "Any hotol amployes who calls a guest that name may expect to ruin his hotel at once," said Magistrate Crane. "If a man called me that I would not let it go unpunished. It strikes me one is justified in resenting such a name, Discharged."

CAMBRIDGE NOT TO ROW HARVARD

President of English University Has Heard Nothing of Reported Race.

LONDON, Jan. 26.-B. C. Johnstone President of the Cambridge University Boat Club, telegraphed to the Assoto the report from Boston that Camridge contemplated sending an "eight" to America during the summer to row against Harvard:
"I have had no word from an Amer-ican university challenging Cambridge to row."

TINY BABY IS DE AD,

an old-fashioned rear tenement at No. 54 Forsyth street lies the body of threemonths-old Balif Fischer, a victim of medicine and died without medical strendance.

The neighbors say that the Fischers have been for some time living on the charity of people living in the house, and that could be picked out of gar-

AMBASSADOR MEYER DECORATED BY CZAR.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 26.-Ambas-sador Méyer was received by Emperor Nicholas in special audience this afternoon and presented his letters of recall, Secretary Bliss assumed the direction of Secforary Bliss assumed the direction of the American Embassy as charge d'affaires ad interim.

At the conclusion of the audience, which lasted half an hour and was marked by great cordiality, the Emperor, Mr. Meyer's services as Ambassador having terminated with the presentation of his letters of recall, personally conferred on him the Grand Cordon of the Alexander Nevski, Order.

Park & Tilford

Their Special P. & T. Blend of Coffee is a popular price coffee of exceptional quality, full bodied. rich and with an inviting aroma; roasted and ground in their own warehouse

Price 24c. per lb.

Complete price-list of the best of the world's Groceries and Table Delicacies at lowest prices at your disposal

Will Send My DEAFNESS BOOK FREE

FREE DEAFNESS BOOK COUPON

Radway's Ready Relief creased vigor the slumbering vitality o the physical structure, and through this healthful stimulation and increased action the CAUSE of the pain is driven away and a natural condition restored. It is thus that the Ready Relief is so admirably adapted for the cure of pain and without the Externally for rheumstian, neuralgia, sciatica, sprains, bruises, burns, toothache, headache, pains in the back, the applica-

Radway's Ready Relief

Radway & Co., 45 Lafayette St., New York DR. TOBIAS'

WORTH Its WEIGHT IN GOLD.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. WOMAN'S ILLS IN THE WORLD.

DIED.

GAINES,—At Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Jan. 25, 1907, MINERVA EASTMAN GAINES, wife of Clement C. Salnes.

Funeral Jan. 28, 1907, at 2 P. M., at THOUSDELL .- At her residence, pps Oa den ave., MARY TROUBDELL beloved wife of Hugh Trousdell, Notice of funeral hereafter,

EDITION OF THE EVENING

WORLD CONTAINS COMPLETE SPORTING